

AU-ABC PARTNER SCHOOLS

Each AU-ABC partner school has gone through an extensive AU-ABC application and vetting process. The partner school determines which CCAF AAS degree or degrees to link to its bachelor degree programs. Students work directly with the AU-ABC partner school to enroll and manage the degree program process. Upon completion of all bachelor degree requirements, the AU-ABC partner school will award the bachelor degree. For up-to-date information on AU-ABC partner schools, visit your local base education office and the Air Force Virtual Education Center (AFVEC).

ACCREDITATION

AU-ABC is a voluntary program and the parameters for inclusion of institutions are based on tuition assistance guidelines. Airmen should give careful consideration to course transferability and acceptability and check the accreditation source of the target AU-ABC school to ensure the program and school meet their unique educational goals. Accreditation information is available on the AU-ABC search page in AFVEC.

KEY FEATURES

- MAXIMIZES application of military career education and training
- Builds on the CCAF Associate in Applied Science degree
- In most cases CCAF graduates will need NO MORE THAN 60 semester hours to complete the bachelor degree requirements
- Every student receives a binding degree completion contract that locks in transfer credit and states remaining degree requirements
- AU-ABC partner schools are military friendly
- AU-ABC partner schools are regionally or nationally accredited

VISIT THE AIR FORCE PORTAL

The Air Force Portal is the gateway to the Air Force Virtual Education Center and AU-ABC. Once connected, students can view their education record and CCAF credits earned, apply for Military TA and shop for baccalaureate degree programs. Visit the AF Portal at <https://www.my.af.mil>.
