

MOUNTAIN HOME AFB EDUCATION CENTER

MILITARY SPOUSE INFORMATION

1

MYCAA

MyCAA provides a maximum of $4000 in tuition assistance to help eligible military spouses who need professional credentials, certificates, or licenses to meet their career goals.

For More Information:
<https://aiportal.acc.af.mil/mycaa>

2

SECO

The Department of Defense SECO program provides expert education and career guidance to mil-spouses worldwide. SECO offers resources and tools related to career exploration, education, training, licensing, and employment readiness.

For More Information:
myseco.militaryonesource.mil

3

FAFSA/SCHOLARSHIPS

Military spouses are encouraged to apply for federal student aid and scholarships. In addition, many colleges offer discounted tuition rates for military spouses. Spouses are also encouraged to use scholarship search engines.

For More Information:

1. <https://studentaid.gov>
2. <https://www.careeronestop.org/toolkit/training/find-scholarships.aspx>
3. <https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org/pay-for-college/scholarship-search>

4

TRANSFERRED GI BILL

Many spouses help pay for their education through a transferred GI Bill. The Education Center can support members and spouses through this process with information and referral. Spouses are also encouraged to attend the center's Higher Education Track class if they are using GI Bill benefits.

For More Information:
<https://www.va.gov>

5

CAREER AND COLLEGE COUNSELING

Mountain Home AFB has a team of skilled and experienced counselors that are available for personalized career and college counseling. In addition, counselors can provide a variety of resources and tools!

For More Information:

1. <https://www.careerpathdecide.org>
2. MHAFB Ed Center- 208-828-6363